

Icebreaker:

Do you use social media sites or apps? Which ones? How does it affect you?

What are some things you see in our world today that you think are not wise?

What are some things in our world that you think are wise?

Did you read the first four chapters of Proverbs this week? If so, what have you been learning or what are you thinking about in response?

We are going to consider a few introductory sections this week to learn some general thoughts about wisdom.

Read Proverbs 1:20-31. In this passage, wisdom is personified as a woman. What do you learn about wisdom through that analogy?

What promises are given to those who reject wisdom? To those who accept it?

Read Proverbs 2. What are the benefits of applying your heart to wisdom?

Read Proverbs 3:13-26. What are some benefits of obtaining wisdom?

Which of all these benefits are most motivating to you?

Is the pursuit of wisdom a high priority for you?

What does that mean for you moving forward?

(10) The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom, and knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.
